

"STALKER"

So excited, I'm invited...

over to your house without disturbing the alarm.

So afraid that, I won't get asked back...

How can I convince you that I don't mean any harm?

Did you hear me walkin' by your window?

Did you see me followin' your car?

Friends say I'm your stalker. What do they know?

of how I feel whenever we're apart.

Is it too soon to start... thinking of our wedding in my heart?

So persistent, I'm resistant...

to all of your attempts to brush me off and move along.

So obsessed, I'm such a mess...

I can't help but follow you around. Is that so wrong?

Did you hear my messages at midnight?

Did you see me stakin' out your home?

Friends say I'm your stalker an' it's not right.

I just don't really wanna' be alone.

Again your dialtone... What does it mean when he hangs up the phone?

I've got you in my sight...and soon you'll see the light...

Oh yeah, and one more thing...

I told your friends that you were droppin' hints about a ring...

Messages at midnight...Followin' your car...

Friends' say I'm your stalker. What do they know?

Have I gone too far? I'm dancin' on your table at the bar!

So berated, I'm deflated...

I got no response to all the notes left on your door.

So you're colder, I'll be bolder...

I'll be sure to find you, no matter where you are!

CHORUS 1

Are we really done...or was your protection order just for fun?

CHORUS 2

Is there any hope...I'll see you at the other...end of the telescope.
